

The IIWR-MB Vision

Former: A world of opportunity, dignity and human rights actualized for women and girls.

Proposed: A world where dignity, gender equity and justice are actualized for all people.

The IIWR-MB Mission

Former: We are a diverse community promoting awareness of women's human rights through advocacy, education, and action.

Proposed: A community of practice focused on gender equity and justice through advocacy, education, and action.

The IIWR-MB Values

Former:

- Advocacy: Highlighting to the larger community the issues, focusing on the human rights of women.
- Inclusivity: Being welcoming, diverse and respectful; having authentic grass roots voices; valuing every one's contribution
- Sharing/Learning: Raising our and others' awareness and knowledge.
- Connection and Community: Engaging and supporting multiple communities through education and fundraising
- Peace: Acting on and promoting non-violence and safety.

Proposed:

- Advocacy: Collaborating with the wider community to raise issues related to gender equity, justice and power within governments, institutions and systems.
- Inclusivity: Creating space for diverse voices and centring those with lived experiences.
- Education: Engaging in collaborative exchanges with the community to grow our collective knowledge.
- Community: Building and maintaining relationships rooted in accountability and the shared value of advancing gender equity.
- Peace: Practicing non-violence, community care and transformative justice that builds towards sustainable communities.